

Christian Women's Job Corps & Christian Men's Job Corps

Georgia is the 6th poorest state in the nation with nearly 20 percent of the state's population living below the federal poverty line.

Christian Women's/Men's Job Corps (CWJC/CMJC) serves those living in poverty with a holistic approach, addressing spiritual, physical, and relational needs. Participants are equipped for life and employment through education, job skill training, Bible study, and mentoring.

- 5 current CWJC sites in Georgia
- 1 new CWJC site in development
- 1 new CMJC site in development
- Average 9-12 participants per site per term
