

MINISTRIES

WMU Ministries
wmu.com/ministries

Do you want to be more involved in hands-on missions, but sometimes it seems too hard? We've broken it down, pointing out a few ways you can get plugged in locally, nationally, or globally.

CONTACTS:

Jean Roberson
CWJC®/CMJC®
Ministry Consultant
jroberson@wmu.org
205-991-4096

Kristy Carr
PWPLSM, BNF®, Trips
Ministry Consultant
kcarr@wmu.org
205-991-4097

Sheryl Churchill
ProjectHELPSM
Churchwide Consultant
schurchill@wmu.org
205-991-4076

Emily Swader
WorldCraftsSM
Marketing Strategist
eswader@wmu.org
205-991-4027

WorldCrafts

*Fair-trade businesses
among impoverished
people around the world*

Locally: Throw a party!
A WorldCraftsSM party is an easy and unique way to introduce (or keep) missions in front of your church family.

Nationally: When you shop fair trade, you automatically support international missions. Artisans are paid fair wages and receive sustainable incomes through sales.

Project HELP: Human Exploitation

A two-year churchwide emphasis

Locally: Help your church learn more on this issue through an incredibly comprehensive learning tool, the Release and Restore CD.

Nationally: Contact your state WMU office to learn specific needs related to human trafficking/exploitation in your state and where you can get involved.

CWJC/CMJC: Job Readiness

Training in life skills and job readiness

Locally: Go online and see if there is a site in your area that you can volunteer with. There are over 215 across the country!

Globally: Pray for the existing international CWJC®/CMJCSM sites, and pray these sites will be multiplied throughout the world.

Pure Water, Pure Love

A clean water ministry

Locally: Raise awareness in your church through resources available online. Challenge them to give their change to change the lives of many who do not have clean water.

Globally: Give financially to support the drilling of wells and water purification projects where missionaries and residents live.

Missions Trips!

FamilyFESTSM, MissionsFESTSM, and International InitiativesSM

Nationally: New trips are planned each year for either FamilyFEST or MissionsFEST. Visit us online to see what's going on this year.

Globally: WMU® partners with various non-profits around the globe each year and sends missions teams to serve. See wmu.com/trips for more details.

Baptist Nursing Fellowship (BNF)

For Christian health-care professionals

Locally: Contact your state WMU office to see where BNF® organizations are serving this year. It may be in your own backyard!

Nationally: Membership is also available nationally. Join us for missions trips nationally and globally that focus on healthcare.

The Story Lives On
Celebrate • Connect • Commit